5           (1) The Aid to Families with Dependent Chil-
6       dren (AFDC) program under part A of title IV of 7       the Social Security Act has no time limits, and at 8       any given point in time, 65 percent of AFDC recipi-

1       ents are individuals who will spend 8 or more years
2       on welfare.

3           (2) The current AFDC cash payment is a
4       straight transfer of income, with no reciprocal obli-
5       gation.

6           (3) The JOBS program under part F of title
7       IV of such Act emphasizes training, not employ-
8       ment.

9           (4) AFDC Recipients are under no obligation to 10      leave welfare.

11          (5) The current AFDC program does not en-
12      courage businesses to help reduce welfare depend-
13      ency.

14          (6) Government becomes the other parent in 15      single parent households.

16          (7) The current AFDC program rewards so-
17      cially undesirable behavior, such as having children
18      without means of support.

19          (8) The “Wisconsin Works” proposed dem-
20      onstration project to replace the AFDC program in 21      Wisconsin shows significant promise in addressing 22      the issues set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

23          (9) The President has endorsed the “Wisconsin
24      Works” plan.
